and Hawaii at 10 a. m. SENTENCE DEFERRED.

At 10 o'clock this morning, Hon. Paul Neumann, counsel for J. R. Robertson found guilty by a jury in the Waialua shooting case moved that sentence be deferred until Wednesday, so that affidavits for mitigation of sentence could be filed. As the prosecution did not object, His Honor Justice Bickerton deferred sentence as requested.

SAD ACCIDENT.

A native, Kamaka by name, had his two legs broken at Paia Railroad depot the other day. The big hanging door was not sufficiently open, and in trying to push it aside, the door fell over him, with the result as stated above. It is said the train came at a too high speed, so that it could not be stopped in time, when it was discovered the door was only Her jibboom and some sails were partly open. The door was slightly carried away and two of her crew stand up for the ladies, excepting damaged on one side.

MAIL FOR SAN FRANCISCO.

The tern W. S. Bowne sails for San Francisco to-morrow afternoon, at 2 o'clock. A mail will be forwarded by her which closes at the Post Office at 1 o'clock. Be sure and send copies of the BULLETIN Weekly Summary to your friends.

PACIFIC CABLE.

A London cable of Jan. 4 says: Further progress in the Pacific cable project awaits the outcome of the conference at Ottawa of the Australia and Canadian delegates. The possible extension of a British protectorate over the islands of Rurutva and Riruatara in Oceanica is directing attention to their utility for purposes of the Pacific cable. These islands are part of the group belonging to France.

THE PALL. During a conversation about the Pali the other evening a gentleman stranger asked if that was the place where 300,000-30,000-3,000-200-30 or 3 men were thrown over. When his listeners began to laugh at his numbers, he said apologetically, that he knew it was there with several oughts, but how many, he had forgotten. His wife came to the rescue. however, saying that it was probably three who ought to have been thrown

BURGLARY.

Between the hours of 8 o'clock a. m. and 5 o'clock p. m. Saturday, the residence of Mr. A. Kraft, was plundered. An entrance was made through a side window, which was broken by the plunderer or plunderers, as yet unknown. The bureaudrawers and the trunks were forced open and ransacked. A few articles of trifling importance were carried off, while the rest was thrown about promiseuously. No money or jew-elry was stolen, because none was there.

HARE AND HOUNDS.

The paper chase came off on Saturday afternoon as announced. Messrs. E. P. Low and T. Lishman the "bares" started from the Makiki grounds on horses. The former had to stop after going a short distance, his horse not acting well. Lishman laid the "scent" to Punahou, then to Kamoiliili out to the sand beach and to Waikiki by way of Diamond Head, stopping at Park Beach Hotel. The run occupied about one hour, and the "hare" was not caught. The "hounds" were quite numerous.

A SHOW COMING.

The barkentine Mary Winkelman, was to leave San Francisco on or about January 7th, with Mons. Bushnell's great $10,000 troupe of performing Russian and French poodles and other attractions. Mons. Bushnell, the proprietor of this show was recently connected with B. T. Barnum's great show, and his entertainment is said to be first class in every respect. A number of performances will be given in Honolulu under a large tent. Mr. L. J Levey has been communicated with in regard to the above show.

CLAUS SPRECKELS INTERVIEWED. Col. Claus Spreckels was at the Lafayette Hotel in Philadelphia, January 4th. He said: "My beetsugar factory is completed. It has a capacity of forty-four tons a day. This will eventually be increased to fifty tons. It is really the first successful effort to make beet sugar on a large scale, and is a grand success. There is no doubt in my mind that this country can raise not only the material, and manufacture all the sugar it can consume, but will in a few years be able to export 1,000,-000 a year."

Two coal-miners fought a most brutel fist duel in the presence of 500 men and women, at Des Moines January 4th. The men were named Gallagher and Clark. The latter was knocked out in the forty-ninth round. Both were horribly pummeled and disfigured.

L. A. Hamilton of the Canadian Pacific is arranging with the Canadian Interior Department for the final selection of the land subsidy of the Canadian Pacific. The area referred to comprises about 10,000,-000 acres of land, chiefly in the Northwest.

At a banquet of the Toronto Board of Trade Jan. 4th, Governor-General Stanley, Sir John McDonald and Hon. Oliver McWat, Premier of Ontario, all condemned the annexation movement and expressed confidence in Canada's future. By lapse of the famous Lefarge Fontine the French Government gets 1,000,000 francs and an annuity of of 1,250,000 francs. Of the 116,-000 subscribers twenty are living, all of them being over 100 years of John L. Sullivan will give no attention to Kilrain's offer to meet him in Canade to sign a contract to fight. Sullivan is influenced by business motives in making this decision. His Boston friends propose giving him a big benefit soon and the slogger argues that to negotiate for a fight with Kilrain would interfere with the granting of a license for a benefit. Captain Liverson, wife and crew of eleven persons of the bark Kate Carnie from Brunswick, Ga., for Rotterdam arrived at New York, Jan. 4th. They were rescued by the bark Belle Wooster after two lays on the water-logged vessel. which was sinking when abandoned.

A dispatch from Suakim Jan. 4th, says; A number of mounted Arabs rode close to the outer fortifications to-day. The forts opened fire with shells, and as the Arabs retreated the British cavalry followed in pursuit. Several Arabs were wounded, but all of them escaped. The New York hotel-keepers are to have a trust called the Hotel Mutual Association. It will be almost world-wide in its scope. The scheme originated in England and is thoroughly organized for that country, and is nearly ready for work on the Continent. The work of forming the American hotels into the trust began upon the arrival in New York the other day of E. E. Skelros, the originator of the scheme. News has been received at Madrid of a terrible explosion in a coal mine in the province of Ovieda. Twenty-seven persons were instantly killed and many more badly injured. The explosion was caused by fire-damp. All the bodies have not yet been recovered. The disaster will cause much suffering among the poor people, and they will have to have assistance.
